Food for Families

The All Saints Council of the Knights of Columbus is sponsoring a food drive as part of their Food for Families Program. This month the Clover Area Assistance Center (CAAC) is in need of: peanut butter, rice, rice mixes, pasta, pasta sauce, canned fruits, canned potatoes, canned meats, canned pinto beans/baked beans, canned diced tomatoes, toothpaste, toothbrushes (individually packaged), mouthwash, shampoo/conditioner, soap, and laundry soap/cleaning products. Any other non-perishable items will be appreciated and used. These will be distributed to needy families in our community. Please take all food items for FOOD FOR FAMILIES to the main kitchen. Collection will take place after all Masses the weekend of October 12th -13th. A total of 207# of food was collected and donated to CAAC for September. The next collection will be the weekend of November 23rd -24th. Thanks again!

Lintner Question & Answer Panel Discussion

All Saints Parish in conjunction with the Knights of Columbus would like to invite all Parishioners and non-parishioners to an open, and thought provoking, question-and-answer forum. A panel format will be used to answer any and all questions about our Catholic Faith, the Church, and its teachings. Please join us for a relaxing series of two Thursday evenings in October, in the Parish Life Center, to learn more about and discuss our Catholic Faith. Adult beverages and refreshments will be served.

Come prepared with questions you would like to talk about!

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading -- Woe to the complacent, stretched comfortably on their couches! (Amos 6:1a, 4-7).

Psalm -- Praise the Lord, my soul! (Psalm 146)

Second Reading -- Pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness (1 Timothy 6:11-16).

Gospel -- There was a rich man who dined sumptuously each day. Lying at his door was a poor man named Lazarus (Luke 16:19-31).

GriefShare will be held on Fridays from 10am-12pm in the McGivney Room beginning October 4th. This is a video-based support group for those who are grieving the loss of a loved one. The program will run for 13 weeks. Group members are welcome to join at any point during the program. If you have questions or need more information please contact Charlene Horgan 704-515-9193.

Please pray for Richard Gibson who passed away recently and for his family.

Dick created all of the beautiful stained glass windows for our church.

"Stretching a Blessing"

God's Kitchen sincerely acknowledges and appreciates your contributions. Due to your generous donations, we are able to help others in and around the Clover Community in need by providing a hot meal every day of the week.

Please continue to pray for us as we feed those who are in need.

SACRAMENTS

Baptism: The celebration of Baptism is a moment of Grace for those to be baptized, for their families, and for the entire Parish Community. Preparation class is held the last Wednesday of each month at 7pm. Please call the office to RSVP. A Parish is a certain community of the Christian faithful stably constituted in a particular church, whose pastoral care is entrusted to a pastor (Code of Canon Law #515). Therefore, it is important for parishioners to register for contact and pastoral reasons. You must have a sponsor letter from the parish in which each of the godparents reside. A godparent must have received the sacraments of Baptism, Penance, Holy Communion and, if married, have been married in the Catholic Church.

Marriage: Couples planning to be married must see a priest at least six months prior to the planned marriage. Couples seeking to be married at All Saints need to fulfill the All Saints pre-marriage process. The Wedding Coordinator and/or the Pastor will provide the couple with the guidelines and secure the date and time of the wedding. Do not set a date in advance until you have spoken to the pastor.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the Parish Office if you or a member of your family need the Sacrament of Anointing.

After Hours Sick Calls: In case of serious illness after hours, please call 803-493-1714 and leave a message.

September 29, 2019 — Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

AM 6:1A, 4-7; PS 146:7-10;1 TM 6:11-16; LK 16:19-31

We have all been given great power by God in the form of Time, Talents, and Treasure. Today's readings remind us that this power is meant to be used for the greater good. And, that the failure to use our gifts responsibly has eternal consequences.

Our First Reading is again from the book of Amos. It warns of the danger of complacency. "Thus says the Lord the God of hosts: Woe to the complacent in Zion! Lying upon beds of ivory, stretched comfortably on their couches..." The Lord says that because of the complacency of the people, "They shall be the first to go into exile, and their wanton revelry shall be done away with."

The tendency towards complacency is perhaps an even greater danger for us in the modern age with so many conveniences (fast food, remote controls, Amazon Prime, to name a few) and so many possibilities for diversion and entertainment (cable tv, laptops, tablets, cell phones, and the myriad other devices we all use).

The Lord's message could not be any more clear — we must get off the couch and put our powers (the many gifts He has given us) to work!

The Second Reading from St. Paul's letter to Timothy shows us how to free ourselves of this dangerous complacency we are warned of in the First Reading.

Paul instructs us to:

- "Pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness."

- "Compete well for the faith."
- "Lay hold of eternal life, to which [we] were called." And
- "Keep [God's] commandment without stain or reproach."

Notice how active St. Paul's word choices are: "pursue," "compete," "lay hold," and "keep" are the terms he uses to instruct us.

Our Lord Himself gives us a very clear illustration of the urgency for us to put our powers to good use in today's Gospel Passage from Luke. He tells the rather chilling parable of the rich man who ignored poor Lazarus during their lifetimes. At the moment of the rich man's death, he goes down to the netherworld while Lazarus is taken to the eternal joy and comfort at the bosom of Abraham. The rich man keenly regrets his complacency towards the needs of Lazarus, but it is too late for regret. His choices have played out and now the rich man will face the eternal consequences of his failure to use the gifts God gave him.

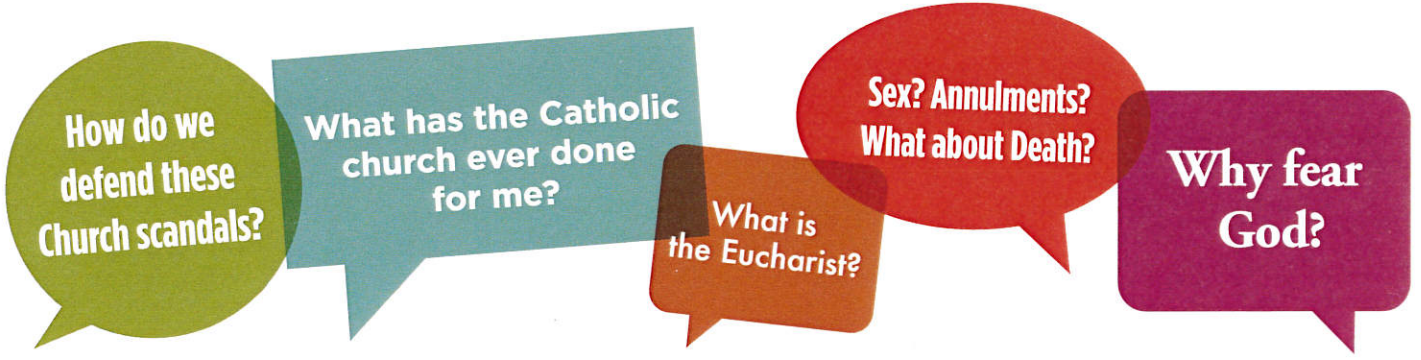

Pursuit of God's kingdom, and care for the poor are not trifling matters. Our Lord makes this clear to us over and over in the Scriptures and the constant teachings of our 2,000-year-old Church. We are free to ignore these matters and live instead for ourselves. But there will be sad consequences for us in the end. And, because we are made for eternity, living selfishly on this earth doesn't really bring us true happiness anyway.

So how can we use our great powers for great good? By embracing a stewardship way of life. By putting our loving God first in all areas of our lives — in the way we spend our time, the ways we put all of our talents to use, the ways we use our financial resources. Stewardship living calls us out of our comfort zone and into commitment to the Lord and the things that matter to Him.

Let us examine our lives and make any changes or corrections needed in our priorities so that we can indeed compete well for the faith, pursue righteousness and lay hold of eternal life.

Reflection from Catholic Stewardship Consultants. Used with permission.

How can you get out there and be active in our parish as we are all reminded to do in today's readings? Visit the Ministry Fair October 19/20 and see what opportunities are available that fit with your God given gifts!

You've got questions. We have answers.

All are invited to join in the Lintner Panel Discussion covering topics related to our Catholic faith, the Church, and it's teachings.

If you've ever had questions about being Catholic, this is a great opportunity to get some answers. By using a panel format, you will get to hear several different opinions and possible answers to each question. Don't be shy! Bring your tough questions, and let's get some answers! No topic is off limits. Bring some friends and join us for a relaxing series of Thursday evenings.

Adult beverages and food will be served. Yes it's free!

Parishioners and Non-Parishioners are invited.

We hope to see you there!

Where: All Saints PLC.

When: 7:00pm Thursdays - October 3rd, October 17th
