SACRAMENTS

Baptism: The celebration of Baptism is a moment of Grace for those to be baptized, for their families, and for the entire Parish Community. Preparation class is held the last Wednesday of each month at 7pm. Please call the office to RSVP. A Parish is a certain community of the Christian faithful stably constituted in a particular church, whose pastoral care is entrusted to a pastor (Code of Canon Law #515). Therefore, it is important for parishioners to register for contact and pastoral reasons. You must have a sponsor letter from the parish in which each of the godparents reside. A godparent must have received the sacraments of Baptism, Penance, Holy Communion and, if married, have been married in the Catholic Church.

Marriage: Couples planning to be married must see a priest at least six months prior to the planned marriage. Couples seeking to be married at All Saints need to fulfill the All Saints pre-marriage process. The Wedding Coordinator and/or the Pastor will provide the couple with the guidelines and secure the date and time of the wedding. Do not set a date in advance until you have spoken to the pastor.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the Parish Office if you or a member of your family need the Sacrament of Anointing.

After Hours Sick Calls: In case of serious illness after hours, please call 803-493-1714 and leave a message.

MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Catholic Community dedicated to proclaiming Christ's message of love and salvation through worship, sacraments and ministries.

Stewardship Reflection on Lectionary Readings — May 10, 2020

Fifth Sunday of Easter

The readings on this fifth Sunday of Easter present us with themes of dwelling places and home. As Christian stewards, we are well aware that this world is not our permanent home. We are merely pilgrims here, making our way through the stewardship way of life to our true home, heaven.

Yet, as we make our way to heaven, we are called to make our dwelling here — whether we are in a household of one or bursting at the seams — a true “domestic church.” In other words, the stewardship way of life begins long before we set foot on the parish grounds. Stewardship starts at home.

We actually see this concept at play from the earliest days of the Church, as illustrated in our first reading from Acts. In the first verse we read that members of the early church complained “because their widows were being neglected in the daily distribution.” When there is turmoil in the home, when needs are not being met — in this passage, a very basic need for adequate food and drink — or when we lack an attitude of service within our homes and towards each other in our community, we are not the stewards that Christ is calling us to be.

Stewardship is not just about going to Mass once a week, serving in ministries and giving financially to the parish. Those are all essential parts of stewardship. But stewardship begins long before we step onto our parish campus. It begins with our families, our domestic churches. The domestic church plays a key role in our sanctification because it is the primary place where we practice intimate and selfless love of other persons.

Ultimately, stewardship is not something that we do — it is who we are. It’s a way of living out our baptismal call to follow Christ as His disciples — whether in parish life, in our social life, in our work life — and certainly in our home life.

In our second reading, St. Peter instructs, “Let yourselves be built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.” Peter is not speaking strictly to clergy members, but to all of us who are disciples of Christ by virtue of our Baptism. How are lay people to do this?

The Catechism of the Catholic Church tells us, “It is here that... all members of the family exercise the priesthood of the baptized in a privileged way 'by the reception of the sacraments, prayer and thanksgiving, the witness of a holy life, and self-denial and active charity.' Thus the home is the first school of Christian life and a ‘school of human enrichment’” (1657).

In our Gospel passage from John, Jesus speaks of heaven as a home filled with dwelling places. “In my Father’s house there are many dwelling places. If there were not, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you?” This is a beautiful image of the glory that awaits us and the personal love our Lord has for us in preparing the perfect “spot” for each one of us who remain faithful to Him.

Let us respond to this great love by becoming good stewards of our earthly dwellings, making of our homes true “domestic churches” where we honor God with our prayer, our thoughtfulness to each other and our generous hospitality to all. Let us never forget that stewardship starts at home!

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — They chose Stephen. (Acts 6:1-7)

Psalm — "Lord, let your mercy be on us as we place our trust in you." (Psalm 33)

Second Reading — "The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone."

(1 Peter 2:4-9)

Gospel — "I am the way and the truth and the life." (John 14:1-12)

"I am the way and the truth and the life," Jesus says to his disciples in the passage from John we hear today. He is the foundation on which we build our lives, the cornerstone of our spiritual home. As we continue to celebrate this Easter season, let us listen to God's word and discern the way, the truth, and the life that Jesus reveals to us.

SAINTLY SEW CREW

The sewers are Tena Bougor, Barb Kish, Benita Westbrook, Jeannette Altenburg, Cathy Hanlon and Lidia Sundberg. Charlotte Worobec has been picking up supplies and delivering masks. Every mask is blessed and comes with a small paper cross and prayer card with washing instructions. We are on Facebook. You may request a free mask, post a picture of the recipient wearing a mask or make a comment. We love to hear from our parishioners and friends.

Thank you ladies!!

(Please go to the Saintly Sew Crew facebook page for requests.)

We are working on preparations to open the church for Mass. We will post this information on the website (www.allsaintslakewylie.com) as soon as plans are finalized. We will also send out an email blast.

If you want to be added to the email blast list, please send an email request to allsaintsparish@bellsouth.net.
