SACRAMENTS

Baptism: The celebration of Baptism is a moment of Grace for those to be baptized, for their families, and for the entire Parish Community. Preparation class is held the last Wednesday of each month at 7pm. Please call the office to RSVP. A Parish is a certain community of the Christian faithful stably constituted in a particular church, whose pastoral care is entrusted to a pastor (Code of Canon Law #515). Therefore, it is important for parishioners to register for contact and pastoral reasons. You must have a sponsor letter from the parish in which each of the godparents reside. A godparent must have received the sacraments of Baptism, Penance, Holy Communion and, if married, have been married in the Catholic Church.

Marriage: Couples planning to be married must see a priest at least six months prior to the planned marriage. Couples seeking to be married at All Saints need to fulfill the All Saints pre-marriage process. The Wedding Coordinator and/or the Pastor will provide the couple with the guidelines and secure the date and time of the wedding. Do not set a date in advance until you have spoken to the pastor.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the Parish Office if you or a member of your family need the Sacrament of Anointing.

After Hours Sick Calls: In case of serious illness after hours, please call 803-493-1714 and leave a message.

MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Catholic Community dedicated to proclaiming Christ's message of love and salvation through worship, sacraments and ministries.

Infirm Priests/ FOOD DRIVE

Dear Parishioners,

We will follow the regular schedule of weekday and weekend Masses. Communion services will be on Tuesdays. Confessions can be heard on Saturdays from 4:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.

If you are nervous about attending a weekend Mass due to the number of people, we encourage you to attend a daily Mass. We ask that anyone who is sick to remain home, as should vulnerable and at-risk populations. If you are over 65 years of age and have respiratory issues or are immunocompromised, please stay home. The Bishop has granted dispensation to those who are uncomfortable attending weekend Mass and those who are high risk until further notice.

There are restrictions and regulations that need to be followed to insure everyone's safety. These are safeguards that will be in place:

- The worship spaces are limited to 50% of capacity. Social distancing of six feet of separation is always to be maintained. St. Peter's room and the Parish Life Center are open for seating.
- Every other row will be cordoned off and only family members (same address) may sit closely together.
- Seats will be marked with blue tape and you will be directed to seats by ushers at the weekend Masses.
- There will be markings on the floor to guide you when going up to receive Communion. Communion will be received in the hand only.
- There will be no hymnals or missalettes. You may bring your personal missal or printed readings to church. We ask that you take them home with you at the end of Mass.
- Please wear masks out of respect for those around you. If you do not have a mask, the church will provide masks that should be returned after Mass to be sanitized.
- Hand sanitizer will be available at the entrance. Bathrooms will be available for emergencies only.
- Envelopes and cash offerings may be put in the wooden collection box at the entrance.

Thank you for your cooperation with implementing these safeguards.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Our Savior is a peacemaker, who rules to the ends of the earth.

(Zechariah 9:9-10)

Psalm — "I will praise your name forever, my king and my God." (Psalm 145)

Second Reading — Whoever does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him.

(Romans 8-9, 11-13)

Gospel — "Take my yoke upon you and learn from me." (Matthew 11:25-30)

Jesus addresses us with comforting words today: "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest." Let those words wash over us and all the responsibilities we have, all the stresses we're under, and all the failures that haunt us. "My yoke is easy," Jesus assures us, "my burden light." As we gather together on this holiday weekend, let us rejoice in the freedom Jesus offers us from our heavy burdens.

Scholarship Winners

The All Saints Council of the Knights of Columbus has awarded $2,000 in scholarships for the 2020-21 academic year.

Once again this year the quality of applicants was superb, and the selection committee was challenged to identify the winners. We thank all who applied and we encourage those who fell short this year to apply again next year, if the opportunity presents itself.

The 2020 – 2021 Winners are:

$1,000.00 Scholarship – Kathryn Graebner

$1,000.00 Scholarship – Brandon Stiff

Congratulations and good luck with your continued educational experiences!

The Scholarship Committee – All Saints Knights of Columbus #14475

Food for Families

The All Saints Council of the Knights of Columbus is sponsoring a food drive as part of their Food for Families Program. This month the Clover Area Assistance Center (CAAC) is in need of: peanut butter, rice, rice mixes, pasta, pasta sauce, canned fruits, canned potatoes, canned meats, canned pinto beans/baked beans, canned diced tomatoes, toothpaste, toothbrushes (individually packaged), mouthwash, shampoo/conditioner, soap, and laundry soap/cleaning products. Any other non-perishable items will be appreciated and used. These will be distributed to needy families in our community. Please take all food items for FOOD FOR FAMILIES to the main kitchen. Collection will take place after all Masses the weekend of July 12th. The next collection will be the weekend August 2nd. Thanks again.

Our 2020 Women's Bible Study will be "A Study of Women of the Bible - Discovering Our Dignity". The All Saints Women's Bible Study is part of "Walking with Purpose". The modern woman's guide to the bible supports the use of Scripture, Catholic Church Doctrine, and Parish women to discuss and apply Scripture to our daily lives. Groups meet at All Saints: Sept 2020—May 2021 (Wed. 6-8:30 p.m. or Thurs. 10-11:30 a.m.) Registration & detailed schedule to be in August 2020. No cost for registration. Study books can be purchased on Amazon or walkingwithpurpose.com.

Note: you may purchase study books before June 30 on walkingwithpurpose.com page and receive 20% discount (code: Covid19).

Book: "Discovering our Dignity, A Study of Women of the Bible". A Zoom meeting each week (tbd) for women who'd rather not meet face to face during the Covid 19 challenge.

Stewardship Reflection on Lectionary Readings — July 5, 2020

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The theme of humility is central to our readings today. God Himself is a humble God, so if we wish to follow Him as Christian stewards, we too, must be humble. In fact, humility is key to the stewardship way of life, and to a peaceful and fulfilling life.

Our first reading from Zechariah foretells the unexpected way in which the Lord, the Savior of the world, will arrive. “See, your king shall come to you; a just savior is he, meek and riding on an ass... and he shall proclaim peace to the nations.” It is almost unfathomable that our almighty, all-powerful God would humble Himself to live among us as one of our own, let alone to contemplate the unassuming way in which He arrived — born as a helpless baby, growing up under the care of human parents and finally making his entrance as savior on a lowly colt. Christ has given us a clear and compelling model of humility. We dare not pursue any other path for ourselves if we wish to follow after Him.

But this kind of humility goes against our natural, worldly bent which says we must insist on having our own way, assert our rights at all costs, and put ourselves first so as to get ahead. How can we live the radical way Christ is calling us to live?

As St. Paul tells us in the letter to the Romans, our second reading today, “Brothers and sisters: You are not in the flesh; on the contrary, you are in the spirit.” Because of the gifts of our Baptism and Confirmation, we have a “super power” right within us — the Holy Spirit — Who gives us every spiritual gift and all the strength we need to follow Christ. We must awaken to the power of the Holy Spirit in our lives, leaning into Him to increase virtue in us, especially this key virtue of humility. Paul reminds us that this is for our own good after all — “For if you live according to the flesh, you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.”

In our Gospel passage from Matthew, Jesus Himself speaks to the Father of the privileged role that humble souls play in God’s plan of salvation. “I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to little ones.”

What does it mean to be a “little one”? It means that we acknowledge we don’t have it all figured out, but that we are very much in need of a savior. It means we recognize that all we are and all we have been given is a gift from God. It means we embrace the stewardship way of life.

It is not easy, but deep peace and consolation come with this way of life. Jesus offers these warm and encouraging words to entice us to embrace it. “Come to me all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.”

The Friends of the Oratory

The friends of The Oratory is a capital raising effort by the Rock Hill Oratory to continue the Oratorian mission in York County. The Rock Hill Oratory serves the sacramental needs of the Catholics in York County by staffing the parishes, teaching in the schools, administering at the hospitals and assisted living facilities in the area. The Oratorians also provide confession, spiritual direction, and spiritual counsel. When one gives to The Friends of The Oratory, the money is used to continue the Oratorian presence in this region.
