SACRAMENTS

Baptism: The celebration of Baptism is a moment of Grace for those to be baptized, for their families, and for the entire Parish Community. Preparation class is held the last Wednesday of each month at 7pm. Please call the office to RSVP. A Parish is a certain community of the Christian faithful stably constituted in a particular church, whose pastoral care is entrusted to a pastor (Code of Canon Law #515). Therefore, it is important for parishioners to register for contact and pastoral reasons. You must have a sponsor letter from the parish in which each of the godparents reside. A godparent must have received the sacraments of Baptism, Penance, Holy Communion and, if married, have been married in the Catholic Church.

Marriage: Couples planning to be married must see a priest at least six months prior to the planned marriage. Couples seeking to be married at All Saints need to fulfill the All Saints pre-marriage process. The Wedding Coordinator and/or the Pastor will provide the couple with the guidelines and secure the date and time of the wedding. Do not set a date in advance until you have spoken to the pastor.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the Parish Office if you or a member of your family need the Sacrament of Anointing.

After Hours Sick Calls: In case of serious illness after hours, please call 803-493-1714 and leave a message.

MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Catholic Community dedicated to proclaiming Christ's message of love and salvation through worship, sacraments and ministries.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The ways and thoughts of God are above our own. (Isaiah 55:6-9)

Psalm — “The Lord is near to all who call upon him.” (Psalm 145)

Second Reading — Saint Paul rejoices that to live is Christ and to die is to gain.

(Philippians 1:20c-24, 27a)

Gospel — “The last will be first, and the first will be last.” (Matthew 20:1-16a)

“Seek the Lord while he may be found, call him while he is near,” Isaiah counsels us in the first words from today’s first reading. We come together today to seek the Lord in word and sacrament, knowing that he can be found in scripture, in the Eucharist, and in each other. We call to him now, lifting our voices in song and prayer, aware of his closeness as we are gathered two or more in his name.

Mondays at The Oratory

October 26, 2020

7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

Mindfulness, Meditation, and the Intersection of Christian and Buddhist Spirituality

In this conversation, we will discuss mindfulness, a movement that is gaining great popularity in our culture and utilized everywhere from self-help, to elementary schools, to the military. We will explore mindfulness from the perspective of Christian mysticism, prayer, and spirituality. We will also consider mindfulness from a Buddhist perspective.

Space is limited, so pre-registration is required.

Registration for Mondays at the Oratory may be made in one of the following ways:

Through the Oratory website:

www.rockhilloratory.org Go to Center for Spirituality / Events. Please indicate October Monday in the Questions/Concerns section.

OR

By email to oratorycenter@gmail.com with October Monday in the subject line.

Coats For Kids

Our annual Coats for Kids campaign will be conducted in September. It is more important than ever this year because of the many low-income families affected by COVID-19. Knights will be collecting donations after all weekend Masses this weekend. You can also donate on line, at any time, by going to <https://tinyurl.com/y47vp544> and selecting the “Donate to Coats For Kids” icon under “Donate Options.” Every $20 will buy one coat. Last year, through your generosity, we were able to buy over 130 coats for local children. Thank you and may God bless you for your support!

Food for Families

The All Saints Council of the Knights of Columbus is sponsoring a food drive as part of their Food for Families Program. This month the Clover Area Assistance Center (CAAC) is in need of: peanut butter, rice, rice mixes, pasta, pasta sauce, canned fruits, canned potatoes, canned meats, canned pinto beans/baked beans, canned diced tomatoes, toothpaste, toothbrushes (individually packaged), mouthwash, shampoo/conditioner, soap, and laundry soap/cleaning products. Any other non-perishable items will be appreciated and used. These will be distributed to needy families in our community. Please take all food items for FOOD FOR FAMILIES to the main kitchen. Collection will take place after all Masses the weekend of October 3 & 4. In September 281# of food was collected. The next collection will be the weekend November 22nd. Thanks again.

For your convenience Online Giving is available on our website at allsaintslakewylie.com.

Stewardship Reflection on Lectionary Readings

September 20, 2020 — Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

As Christian stewards, we recognize that all we have and all that we are is a gift from God, and we live our lives in a grateful response to such extravagant love. This calls for continuous conversion of heart. The practices of giving a portion of our time, our talents and our treasure are essential steps on the path to conversion. But they serve an even deeper purpose than helping us remember our good intentions. They open our minds and hearts to ever-deepening surrender to the Lord, who has given us every good thing.

Today's readings call us to look inward to the state of our hearts, those aspects of ourselves that cannot quite be quantified or measured, but which are the deepest part of us — our thoughts and emotions.

Our first reading, from Sirach, addresses the complicated emotion of anger. "Wrath and anger are hateful things, yet the sinner hugs them tight... Could anyone nourish anger against another and expect healing from the Lord?... If one who is but flesh cherishes wrath, who will forgive his sins?" We have all been wounded by others at some point, some perhaps quite deeply. Our emotions are gifts from God. But we must steward them well, rather than allowing them to overcome us.

How do we do this? Sirach tells us. "Remember your last days, set enmity aside... Think of the commandments... remember the Most High's covenant, and overlook faults." We embrace the stewardship mindset — not brooding over hurts, but recalling all the gifts our good God has given us, all the love He continually pours out upon us, and we put our focus and trust in Him.

In other words, we live for God and not ourselves. What freedom this approach to life brings! All we have is a gift from the Lord. He loves us completely and we can rest in this truth. Knowing this, we need not cling to anger over injustices. God is Lord over all. St. Paul puts it this way in our second reading from Romans: "For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's."

In our Gospel passage from Matthew, Jesus gives us a provocative reminder of the true position we have before Him in light of all that He has done for us. He compares the kingdom of heaven to a "king who decided to settle accounts with his servants." In the parable, a debtor is brought before the king, owing such an overwhelming debt that it could not possibly be repaid. Yet, the king is filled with compassion for the servant, forgives the debt and lets him go free.

Doesn't that sound like each of us in relation to the King of Kings? The Father has given us life, and then sent His only Son to die for us to free us from our sin "debts" and make eternal life with Him possible for us. Like the servant in the parable, it is impossible to repay this debt. All we can do is thank God by giving Him our whole selves — our outward actions and our inner selves — and by treating our fellow debtors with the same compassion and forgiveness He has shown to us. In fact, Jesus rightfully and justly commands us to "forgive your brother from your heart."

What joy and freedom of heart we find in the stewardship way of life!
