

THE SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

The term "Communion of Saints" refers also to the communion of "Holy Persons" (Sancti) in Christ who "died for all," so that what each one does or suffers in and for Christ bears fruit for all.

SACRAMENTS

Baptism: The celebration of Baptism is a moment of Grace for those to be baptized, for their families, and for the entire Parish Community. Preparation class is held the last Wednesday of each month at 7pm. Please call the office to RSVP. A Parish is a certain community of the Christian faithful stably constituted in a particular church, whose pastoral care is entrusted to a pastor (Code of Canon Law #515). Therefore, it is important for parishioners to register for contact and pastoral reasons. You must have a sponsor letter from the parish in which each of the godparents reside. A godparent must have received the sacraments of Baptism, Penance, Holy Communion and, if married, have been married in the Catholic Church.

Marriage: Couples planning to be married must see a priest at least six months prior to the planned marriage. Couples seeking to be married at All Saints need to fulfill the All Saints pre-marriage process. The Wedding Coordinator and/or the Pastor will provide the couple with the guidelines and secure the date and time of the wedding. Do not set a date in advance until you have spoken to the pastor.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the Parish Office if you or a member of your family need the Sacrament of Anointing.

After Hours Sick Calls: In case of serious illness after hours, please call 803-493-1714 and leave a message.

MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Catholic Community dedicated to proclaiming Christ's message of love and salvation through worship, sacraments and ministries.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Dressed in white, bearing palm branches, the saints rejoice in the heavenly liturgy. (Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14)

Psalm - "Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face." (Psalm 24)

Second Reading — We shall be like God.

(1 John 3:1-3)

Gospel — Jesus unfolds the blueprint of the kingdom. (Matthew 5:1-12a)

The Gospel today presents a prescription for a saintly life. With the Beatitudes, Jesus taught his disciples how they would be blessed. As we listen to today's readings let us pray for God's grace in becoming poor in spirit, clean of heart, and hungry for righteousness, among the other prescriptions Jesus lays out for us as his disciples. May we be consoled in the knowledge that God has bestowed on us all that we need to achieve this.

On behalf of the Stellie J. Jackson Enrichment Center Board of Directors and Staff, we are very grateful for your donation in the amount of $500.00. Your generosity is a source of encouragement as well as support as we work to expand our services mainly to the youth within surrounding community. As you may know, this mission has been established since the year of 2011 and has experienced noticeable progress because of the support from caring people as you! Thank you for helping us help others!

Stewardship Reflection on Lectionary Readings

November 1, 2020 — Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

On this Feast of All Saints, we have the profound joy of celebrating our big brothers and sisters in Christ: the saints! This is an especially meaningful feast for us as Christian stewards.

Saints inspire us and lead us to Christ by their example of heroic virtue. Sainthood is meant for all of us — not just the canonized, and not only the martyrs and missionaries. At our Baptism, we all receive the call to holiness and discipleship — in other words, the call to sainthood. If we wish to go to Heaven, we must strive to become saints! Thankfully, through the stewardship way of life, we can each discover our unique path to do just that.

Our First Reading, from Revelation, describes the glory of the saints in Heaven: "a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people and tongue. They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands" all praising and worshiping God as one. This is our future if we are faithful to the call of Christ! But their journey to that place of joy and triumph was hard-fought. "These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress; they have washed their robes and made them white in the Blood of the Lamb." We should not expect the road to sainthood to be easy.

In today's Second Reading, from 1 John, we are given good encouragement for the journey: "See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are." And as glorious as that truth is — our present status as children of God — we are reminded that the best (Heaven) is yet to come. "What we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is." Glory beyond all we can imagine awaits us! The arduous journey to Heaven will be worth every difficulty.

In our Gospel passage from Matthew, the well-known Sermon on the Mount, Jesus reveals His Beatitudes. In them, our Lord lays out the characteristics that mark His disciples, His saints-in-the-making. As we examine, tweak, and update our individual and parish commitments to the stewardship way of life, we must always keep these Beatitudes in mind as a measure of our progress towards saintliness.

The "blessed" that our Lord speaks of are not nine different types of good people who get to go to Heaven. Rather, the "blessed" are nine characteristics of the disciples of Christ, living in their communities — whether at home or in school, in parish life, etc.

These characteristics — poor in spirit, mourners, meek, hungering and thirsting for righteousness, merciful, clean of heart, peacemakers, persecuted for the sake of righteousness, and insulted — are exactly the opposite of the common wisdom which urges us to focus on self and getting ahead. They can only be obtained with an abundance of grace. But we are children of God as we have been reminded, and so we have access to the infinite treasury of God's grace.

Armed with that grace and the stewardship way of life, we can have firm hope that one day we will join our big brothers and sisters in the never-ending joys and celebration of Heaven.

Happy Feast Day to all the saints and saints-in-the-making!

Giving Thanks To The Oratorians At Thanksgiving!

"All this is for your benefit, so that the grace that is reaching more and more people may cause thanksgiving to overflow to the glory of God."

2 Corinthians 4:15

All too often, we forget to stop and be thankful for every little comfort or convenience we experience. This Thanksgiving, thank God for everything He has provided for you and encourage others to do the same. Our Oratory Priests continue to provide us with everything we need and the encouragement to continue a faith filled life. An attitude of thankfulness is needed to be maintained all year round!

Through the "Friends of The Oratory" an Endowment was created to meet specific, non-operating fund needs for our Rock Hill Oratorians. These funds are earmarked for such things as: Priest's Retirement, Priest's Health Care, and to pay for seminary education.

During Thanksgiving of this very unusual year, we would like to encourage all Rock Hill Catholic Church members to give thanks to our clergy through a special donation for the Endowment.

For the month of November, we are asking that you share the spirit of thanksgiving by (1) praying for our 12 Oratorians, and/or (2) Contributing $100.00 (or a donation of your choice) to Rock Hill Oratory Endowment by either:

- Logging onto the website at <https://rockhilloratory.org/> and click on Contact/Donate to share a message and credit card gift, or
- Mailing a message and check made out to: Rock Hill Oratory Endowment at 434 Charlotte Ave, Rock Hill, SC 29730

Thank you from The Friends of The Oratory for your generosity supporting the Endowment!
