

Thirty-Second
Sunday in Ordinary Time

The foolish ones, when taking their lamps,
brought no oil with them,
but the wise brought flasks of oil with their lamps.

SACRAMENTS

Baptism: The celebration of Baptism is a moment of Grace for those to be baptized, for their families, and for the entire Parish Community. Preparation class is held the last Wednesday of each month at 7pm. Please call the office to RSVP. A Parish is a certain community of the Christian faithful stably constituted in a particular church, whose pastoral care is entrusted to a pastor (Code of Canon Law #515). Therefore, it is important for parishioners to register for contact and pastoral reasons. You must have a sponsor letter from the parish in which each of the godparents reside. A godparent must have received the sacraments of Baptism, Penance, Holy Communion and, if married, have been married in the Catholic Church.

Marriage: Couples planning to be married must see a priest at least six months prior to the planned marriage. Couples seeking to be married at All Saints need to fulfill the All Saints pre-marriage process. The Wedding Coordinator and/or the Pastor will provide the couple with the guidelines and secure the date and time of the wedding. Do not set a date in advance until you have spoken to the pastor.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the Parish Office if you or a member of your family need the Sacrament of Anointing.

After Hours Sick Calls: In case of serious illness after hours, please call 803-493-1714 and leave a message.

MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Catholic Community dedicated to proclaiming Christ's message of love and salvation through worship, sacraments and ministries.

Food for Families
Special Thanksgiving
Collection

The All Saints Council of the Knights of Columbus is sponsoring a special Thanksgiving food drive as part of their Food for Families Program. Bags graciously donated by Food Lion will be passed out at all the Masses on the weekend of November 14th and 15th. You are invited to share your holiday blessings with those less fortunate by filling these bags with the food suggestions attached to each bag. Feel free to fill more than one bag! We have plenty of bags, so we ask that you double bag your donation. Please return your bag(s) to Church on the weekend of November 21st and 22nd. Everyone is encouraged to help ensure that this collection is a great one—one that will make Thanksgiving truly happy for many families in the Clover community. Thank you in advance for helping us to bless our neighbors with much needed food for their holiday!

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Rise before dawn and watch for wisdom's appearance and you will not be disappointed. (Wisdom 6:12-16)

Psalm - "My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God." (Psalm 63)

Second Reading — We do not mourn death as those who have no hope..

(1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 or 4:13-14)

Gospel — The wise virgins were prepared for the coming of the bridegroom. (Matthew 25:1-13)

In today's Gospel, five wise virgins bring extra oil for their lamps so that they will remain burning well into the night, while five foolish virgins having neglected to bring more oil, carry lamps that flicker out. The wisdom that the five foolish ones disregard was available to all who desired it, resplendent and unfading. Let us use that wisdom now as we listen to the word of God, considering what we can do to brighten the path to God's kingdom.

The annual financial report to the parish will be available after all of the Masses on November 7 & 8. If you have questions regarding the report, please contact any member of the Finance Council or call the church office.

Attention all knitters, crocheters, and paracord bracelet makers!!

We need your "hands-on" help to send 75,000 Care Packages to deployed Troops, Veterans, Wounded Heroes and their Caregivers on Veterans Day, during the Holiday Season, and through the end of the year. We want to collect as many Handmade Made-With-Love items as possible to ensure there is a hat, scarf, or paracord bracelet in every one of those 75,000 Care Packages. Collection bins will be available after all Masses this weekend. If you are not a "crafter" and still want to help, you can donate to Operation Gratitude at <https://tinyurl.com/smaa3696>. You can learn more about Operation Gratitude at www.operationgratitude.com. The Knights of Columbus St. Michael the Archangel Assembly thanks you for your support!

Stewardship Reflection on Lectionary Readings

November 8, 2020 — Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wisdom is a central theme in our readings today. It is one of the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit and it is key to living the stewardship way of life in our complex world. As Christian stewards, we should rely on this gift and ask the Holy Spirit to increase it within us.

Our First Reading is taken from the very Book of Wisdom. It instructs, "Taking thought of wisdom is the perfection of prudence, and whoever for her [that is, wisdom's] sake keeps vigil shall quickly be free from care." How does the seeking of wisdom — not worldly wisdom, but the wisdom that comes from the Holy Spirit — "free us from care"? It causes us to rely on God to lead and guide us. This is indeed a freeing way to approach life, removing the pressure from us to have all the answers — because the truth is, we don't. The world is too complicated and unpredictable. The Christian steward can rest in the power of the Holy Spirit to help us navigate any situation.

No situation is more complex (or painful) than death, a subject that St. Paul takes on in our Second Reading from his letter to the Thessalonians. Paul teaches us to be wise in our attitude towards death — our own and that of our loved ones. He advises that we not be "unaware... about those who have fallen asleep, so that you may not grieve like the rest, who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose, so too will God, through Jesus, bring with him those who have fallen asleep." This is both comforting and sobering. It reminds us that death does not have the final word, because Jesus has conquered even death. But it also calls to mind the inevitability of death. We are wise stewards if we live our lives with this truth in mind, setting priorities that will keep us ready to face our judgment day.

Jesus makes this point very explicitly in our Gospel passage from Matthew. He tells the parable of ten virgins awaiting the arrival of the bridegroom who will welcome them in to the wedding feast. Five of the virgins were foolish and five were wise. The foolish virgins failed to bring oil along with their lamps when they went to meet the bridegroom. The wise ones, however, had prepared and brought sufficient oil to keep their lamps lit when the bridegroom came. The foolish virgins, caught off guard, ran off to buy more oil, but they were too late. The door to the wedding feast was locked to them. Jesus cautions, "Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

The stewardship way of life — with its daily and weekly commitments to giving God the best of our Time, Talents and Treasure — is the "oil" that we keep with us at all times. When we have this plan in place and we rely deeply on the Holy Spirit to guide us through the twists and turns of each day, we are free, we are ready to answer the Bridegroom when He calls us. We live in wisdom.
