SACRAMENTS

Baptism: The celebration of Baptism is a moment of Grace for those to be baptized, for their families, and for the entire Parish Community. Preparation class is held the last Wednesday of each month at 7pm. Please call the office to RSVP. A Parish is a certain community of the Christian faithful stably constituted in a particular church, whose pastoral care is entrusted to a pastor (Code of Canon Law #515). Therefore, it is important for parishioners to register for contact and pastoral reasons. You must have a sponsor letter from the parish in which each of the godparents reside. A godparent must have received the sacraments of Baptism, Penance, Holy Communion and, if married, have been married in the Catholic Church.

Marriage: Couples planning to be married must see a priest at least six months prior to the planned marriage. Couples seeking to be married at All Saints need to fulfill the All Saints pre-marriage process. The Wedding Coordinator and/or the Pastor will provide the couple with the guidelines and secure the date and time of the wedding. Do not set a date in advance until you have spoken to the pastor.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the Parish Office if you or a member of your family need the Sacrament of Anointing.

After Hours Sick Calls: In case of serious illness after hours, please call 803-493-1714 and leave a message.

MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Catholic Community dedicated to proclaiming Christ's message of love and salvation through worship, sacraments and ministries.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening. (1 Samuel 3:3b -10, 19)

Psalm - "Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will." (Psalm 40)

Second Reading — Your bodies are members of Christ. (1 Corinthians 6:13c-15a, 17-20)

Gospel — They saw where he was staying and they stayed with him. (John 1:35-42)

God calls Samuel in the middle of the night in today's first reading. Samuel is confused, but eventually he responds, "Speak, for your servant is listening." John's disciples are listening when he points to Jesus and says, "Behold, the Lamb of God." They follow Jesus at once. Let us listen to God's word, ponder how we ourselves are called, and recommit ourselves to following the Lord.

Thank you so much for your generous contribution of $1,016.00. It means so much to have your support.

It is not everyday that you get the chance to change a life, but today, you did. With your donation, the Olancho Aid Foundation is better able to support our students, staff, and community. This means we can reach out to even more families during a very difficult time in Honduras.

When I speak with people here who are thinking about leaving our country in search of a better life, it is obvious they are scared and desperate. During each of those conversations, I tell them to hold onto hope. I pray that Olancho Aid Foundation will be able to help many families avoid the dangerous choice to journey north. Please continue to keep our community in your prayers.

Carlos Najera,
Executive Director

Thank you

The flowers on the altar this weekend were donated by Lidia & Troy Sundberg in thanksgiving for Troy's Birthday

31 CLUB

Anyone can join— no meetings. Pick a number between 1 and 31. Something you'll remember— birthday, anniversary, etc. On that day each month PRAY FOR VOCATIONS. If your date does not appear during a given month (such as, no Feb. 30th), pray on the last day of the month and then return to your chosen date the following month.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Lord, you call us all by name to follow your path. You always bless your Church and guide your followers to become leaders who think of others before themselves. Mold us in the image of your Son, to respond to your call as Sisters, Priests, Deacons and Lay servants of the Gospel. Embolden us all to grow in knowing of you, and allow this knowledge to open our hearts, mind and soul to your enduring call. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen

Mass Intentions

Just a reminder to our parishioners that Mass Intentions get reserved early at All Saints. If you have been thinking of a particular date that you want to remember a deceased loved one, please call the office and have the date reserved. Weekend Masses and Holiday Masses go quickly.

Stewardship Reflection on Lectionary Readings

January 17, 2021 — Second Sunday of Ordinary Time

Our readings today focus on the vital attributes of being a disciple of Christ.

Our First Reading from Samuel unfolds the relationship between Samuel and the Lord. Samuel, who is serving under the priest Eli, hears Eli call him while he is sleeping. Samuel goes to Eli, yet Eli is not the one who is calling him. This happens three times before Eli realizes it is the Lord who is calling Samuel. Eli encourages Samuel to respond next time with, "Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening."

If we put ourselves in Samuel's shoes, we can wonder how many times the Lord has spoken to us but did not recognize His voice. God's voice might already be present in the quiet of our hearts, in Scripture, or even in speaking through someone else. He speaks to us in various forms, but to recognize that it is Him, we must give Him a portion of our time by being still and listening to what He is calling us to do or not do.

We can also put ourselves in Eli's shoes, as Eli recognized it was the Lord speaking to Samuel, and he encouraged him to respond. Once Samuel responded to the Lord, "Samuel grew up, and the Lord was with him." Without Eli, would Samuel have ever understood it was the Lord who was speaking? We can only hope! Thankfully, Eli was a good steward of his own wisdom and knowledge of the Lord.

Often, we find ourselves in circumstances where we could share our knowledge of the Lord. Yet, we hold back. We cannot allow opportunities to share our faith pass us. To be a disciple of Christ means we are a good steward of the knowledge that has been gifted to him or her by God, sharing it with others.

Our Gospel today bears witness to Jesus' first disciples. The two that were with John were his followers, which means they had heard of Jesus and believed in Him. Upon seeing Jesus, John proclaims, "Behold, the Lamb of God." The lamb is a reference to the Jewish sacrificial offering at Passover. This title of Jesus reveals Him as Savior. Once they heard this, they immediately followed Jesus. They had to be with Him. Jesus turned to them and asked, "What are you looking for?" They responded with, "Rabbi, where are you staying?"

Imagine Jesus asking you, "What are you looking for?" Or "What do you seek?" We might respond with answers like a better job, more kids, retirement, or any number of things that we think will make our lives better. The things we seek may be righteous, and God wants us to come to Him with everything — yet, as disciples of Christ, we should first and foremost seek the Kingdom of God. If we strive to respond to Jesus' question in the same way the first disciples responded by asking, "Where are you, Lord?" then we will not be disappointed with the outcome. A disciple of Christ seeks the Kingdom of God first in his life.

Our story of Jesus' first disciples concludes with Andrew intentionally sharing the Good News of Christ to his brother, Simon Peter. Andrew had the gift of meeting the Lord and did not hoard it to himself. Instead, he sought his brother and proclaimed what he had experienced. This is a reminder for us. We are called to be missionary disciples — to seek the Lord and to share what we have found. Our faith is a gift! We should strive to share this gift with others. A disciple of Christ is a good steward of the Good News.

Our journey as disciples of Christ is an ongoing adventure. To grow on this journey, we can seek first the Kingdom of God, listen to God's voice in our lives, and be good stewards of what He has gifted us. With that, the Lord will respond with, "Come, and you will see!"
