

Fourth Sunday
in Ordinary Time

Jesus rebuked him and said, "Quiet! Come out of him!" The unclean spirit convulsed him and with a loud cry came out of him.

SACRAMENTS

Baptism: The celebration of Baptism is a moment of Grace for those to be baptized, for their families, and for the entire Parish Community. Preparation class is held the last Wednesday of each month at 7pm. Please call the office to RSVP. A Parish is a certain community of the Christian faithful stably constituted in a particular church, whose pastoral care is entrusted to a pastor (Code of Canon Law #515). Therefore, it is important for parishioners to register for contact and pastoral reasons. You must have a sponsor letter from the parish in which each of the godparents reside. A godparent must have received the sacraments of Baptism, Penance, Holy Communion and, if married, have been married in the Catholic Church.

Marriage: Couples planning to be married must see a priest at least six months prior to the planned marriage. Couples seeking to be married at All Saints need to fulfill the All Saints pre-marriage process. The Wedding Coordinator and/or the Pastor will provide the couple with the guidelines and secure the date and time of the wedding. Do not set a date in advance until you have spoken to the pastor.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the Parish Office if you or a member of your family need the Sacrament of Anointing.

After Hours Sick Calls: In case of serious illness after hours, please call 803-493-1714 and leave a message.

MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Catholic Community dedicated to proclaiming Christ's message of love and salvation through worship, sacraments and ministries.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — I will raise up a prophet and I will put my words into his mouth.

(Deuteronomy 18:15-20)

Psalm - "If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts." (Psalm 95)

Second Reading — A virgin is anxious about the things of the Lord, that she may be holy.

(1 Corinthians 7:32-35)

Gospel — He taught them as one having authority. (Mark 1:21-28)

God has blessed us with many leaders who have brought God's word to the people. Moses promised the Chosen People that God would raise up a prophet among them who would speak God's words. Saint Paul was called by God to preach to Gentiles all over the known world. Jesus spoke words with the power to drive out unclean spirits, astonishing the people in the synagogue with his authority. Let us listen attentively to the living word of God and hear Jesus' voice still speaking to us in our house of worship.

The All Saints Council of the Knights of Columbus is sponsoring a food drive as part of their Food for Families Program. This month the Clover Area Assistance Center (CAAC) is in need of: peanut butter, rice, rice mixes, pasta, pasta sauce, canned fruits, canned potatoes, canned meats, canned pinto beans/ baked beans, canned diced tomatoes, toothpaste, toothbrushes (individually packaged), mouthwash, shampoo/conditioner, soap, and laundry soap/cleaning products. Any other non-perishable items will be appreciated and used. These will be distributed to needy families in our community. Please take all food items for FOOD FOR FAMILIES to the main kitchen. Collection will take place the weekend of February 6th and 7th. The next collection will be the weekend of March 6th and 7th.

The flowers on the altar this weekend were donated by Mary Streng in memory of her husband, Richard.

My dearest brothers and sisters in Christ, I write to the incredibly generous members of All Saints Parish in Lake Wylie. My first blessing, was to be so welcomed over a year ago to present a 3-night mission to the parish. A second even greater blessing, was to meet and pray with so many faith-filled believers. Even as a retired pastor I continue to evangelize through outreach to some of the poorest communities in Newark, New Jersey. I am ever grateful to Father John for including my ministry in the tithing program of your beautiful parish. The title presented to me was used to feed and house 6 families greatly impacted by the Covid 19 pandemic. Two of these families have special needs children and your kindness helped with their stay-at-home schooling.

I will confess that the weekly tithe also filled my gas tank, a few times, so I could transport some of these family members to their long overdue doctor's appointments. I hold all parish members, along with your pastor, in my daily prayers and Masses. I repeatedly request that our Triune God, Father, Son and Spirit keep everyone safe, healthy and holy until we meet again.

In our faith in eternal Divine Mercy and in the Communion of Saints

Sincerely,

Rev. Msgr. Paul Schetelick

Stewardship Reflection on Lectionary Readings — Homily Guide

January 31, 2021 — Fourth Sunday in Ordinary

Our readings today remind us of God's authority. If we willingly give God authority over our lives and trust in His provision, He will take care of us no matter what.

In our First Reading, Moses announces to the Israelites that God will send them another prophet through whom He will communicate His commands. Regarding the prophet, the Lord says, "Whoever will not listen to my words which he speaks in my name, I myself will make him answer for it. But if a prophet presumes to speak in my name an oracle I have not commanded... he shall die."

These are tough words to hear from our Lord, but they are a good reminder for us. We, too, will answer to the Lord one day as to how well we listened to His words and lived by His commands. The thought of our final judgment may cause us to cringe in fear. And while it is good to have a holy fear of being separated from God for all eternity, fear is not to be the motivating factor on our faith journey. As Christian stewards, it is our job to imitate Christ and follow His commands out of gratitude for all that He has given us. We are more willing to live by God's commands when we are motivated by love and gratitude.

In our Second Reading, St. Paul tells us how to give God authority over our lives. St. Paul was preaching to the people of Corinth regarding Christ's Second Coming. Because he thought the Second Coming was approaching fast, he encouraged them, if unmarried, to remain that way so they might fix their hearts on Christ with the time they have left. It might seem that St. Paul's message cannot apply to us in our present-day — however, what he said has great value to us. No matter our state of life — bishop, priest, deacon, religious, married, single — we are called to put Christ first in our lives and to strive to please Him in all that we do. We are inviting God to have authority over our lives when we make Him our top priority. As a result, we will be more prepared to meet Christ at His Second Coming, and we will have an overwhelming peace in our hearts.

Our Gospel today reminds us why we want to give God this authority. Jesus was teaching in the synagogue on the sabbath. All were fixed on His words and astonished at what He had to say. Suddenly everyone's attention shifted to a man with an unclean spirit who began to question Jesus and His authority. Jesus responded, "Quiet, come out of him!" and removed the evil spirit from the man. All were amazed at the healing of this man.

Life can sometimes look like the synagogue in Capernaum. We are living as disciples of Christ, when we suddenly recognize evil around us — through events in our lives, temptations we are enduring, or by falling into sin. It can distract us, consume our attention, or even cause us to despair. In these moments of trial, we must remember the Healer in our Gospel today. Recall His words, "Quiet, come out of Him!" Jesus has the power and authority over evil, for He has conquered sin and death. He also has the power and authority over us. And when we invite Him to have that authority, He will heal us and help us persevere.

Today, we are reminded that God is in control and that we want Him to be in control. He is the loving Healer that will work miracles in our lives if we give Him the authority to do so.

Are you interested in getting into healthcare to help your community and start a new career?

Belaire Health Care Center is offering a course through Gaston College that will allow you to work as a Temporary Nurse Assistant.

If selected, we will hire you and provide you the training so you can help care for and about those who may need it most.

We also have opportunities to go through a complete CNA training program where you would be able to be paid to become certified as a nursing assistant.

The temporary nursing assistant training is a great first step towards potentially being selected to go through the complete CNA training class.
