SACRAMENTS

Baptism: The celebration of Baptism is a moment of Grace for those to be baptized, for their families, and for the entire Parish Community. Preparation class is held the last Wednesday of each month at 7pm. Please call the office to RSVP. A Parish is a certain community of the Christian faithful stably constituted in a particular church, whose pastoral care is entrusted to a pastor (Code of Canon Law #515). Therefore, it is important for parishioners to register for contact and pastoral reasons. You must have a sponsor letter from the parish in which each of the godparents reside. A godparent must have received the sacraments of Baptism, Penance, Holy Communion and, if married, have been married in the Catholic Church.

Marriage: Couples planning to be married must see a priest at least six months prior to the planned marriage. Couples seeking to be married at All Saints need to fulfill the All Saints pre-marriage process. The Wedding Coordinator and/or the Pastor will provide the couple with the guidelines and secure the date and time of the wedding. Do not set a date in advance until you have spoken to the pastor.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the Parish Office if you or a member of your family need the Sacrament of Anointing.

After Hours Sick Calls: In case of serious illness after hours, please call 803-493-1714 and leave a message.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — As the Apostles were looking on, Jesus was lifted up. (Acts 1:1-11)

Psalm - "God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord." (Psalm 47)

Second Reading — Christ is seated at God's right hand. (Ephesians 4:1-13)

Gospel — The Lord Jesus was taken up into heaven and took his seat at the right hand of God. (Mark 16:15-20)

Today we celebrate a special day in the history of the Church. On the day Jesus ascended to heaven to remain with his Father, he commanded his disciples to carry on his ministry, proclaiming the good news to the whole world. Now we are that whole world. Now we are those disciples. May Christ, whom we encounter as we gather together and receive in the Eucharist on this holy day, strengthen our resolve to spread the good news in our world today.

ALL SAINTS K of C ANNUAL GOLF OUTING

The All Saints Knights of Columbus (K of C) Council is hosting its Annual K of C Charity Golf Outing at the River Hills Country Club on Monday, 23 August 2021. The rain date is 30 August 2021. The format will be "Captains Choice" with a shotgun start at 11 AM.

Proceeds from the outing will support local community and church charities to include the York County Special Olympics, the Clover Area Assistance Center, the Dorothy Day Soup Kitchen, God's Kitchen, Habitat For Humanity, youth scholarships, and elderly support with wheelchair ramps and transportation.

The golf entry fee is $125 per golfer (age 17 and older). Fee includes green fees, cart, lunch, dinner, and awards.

Hole-In-One Prize: New car donated by Caldwell Chevrolet

There are also opportunities for individuals or businesses to sponsor a golf course hole at the Platinum ($300+), Gold ($200), or Silver ($100) levels.

There will also be a silent auction with crafts and items donated by local businesses and artisans.

Plan to attend and invite family, friends and neighbors to a fun-filled day . . . that will greatly benefit the most needy families of our community during the upcoming year. Registration forms and more information can be found at <https://tinyurl.com/kofccharitygolf>.

Stewardship Reflection on Lectionary Readings

May 16, 2021 — Seventh Sunday of Easter

As we celebrate Christ's ascension into heaven, we recall that He is not of this world and we were not made for this world. We were made for eternal life. Our readings today remind us that we are called to be set apart as disciples of Christ.

In our Gospel, Jesus makes it clear that as Christian disciples, we do not belong to the world. He prays to God the Father, "I gave them your word, and the world hated them, because they do not belong to the world any more than I belong to the world."

We must stop and ask ourselves, "Who do we belong to?" The answer is that we belong to our Loving and Gracious God, "that they may be one just as we are one." But, do we act like we belong to God? How we spend our time, what we do with our talents and how we spend our treasures are a good reflection of who or what we belong to.

Does our time reflect time with God, our families and friends? Are our talents used to serve our families, friends, fellow parishioners and those in need? Does the way we spend our treasure glorify God? Is it put to good use? Our lives should be a direct reflection of Whose we are.

Being a disciple of Christ will not always be easy. As our early disciples experienced, "I gave them your word, and the world hated them." But it is because we were not made for the world. We were made to be saints, truly a calling that is out of this world.

Although we do not belong to the world, Jesus clearly prayed, "I do not ask that you take them out of the world but that you keep them from the evil one." We are called to live in this world and to not become consumed by it. We need to keep our minds and hearts fixed on our goal — eternal life.

In order to not become consumed by the world, we need to be on guard from the evil one. As Christian stewards, we must be aware of what we bring into our homes, what we watch on television or social media, what we read, what we listen to and who we call friends. And when we keep a disciplined prayer life and remain close to the sacraments, we will increasingly become aware of the areas of our lives that are becoming consumed.

In our Second Reading, St. John expresses that he, along with others, "have come to know and to believe in the love God has for us." Living set apart from the mainstream world becomes much easier when we recognize, experience and personally encounter Christ's love for us. His love is radical and His home for us in heaven is unthinkable. If we only knew the reality of both those things, we would do anything to love the Lord and be with Him.

Jesus' ascension is a good reminder for us that we, too, are called to heaven. Let us strive to live our lives as a reflection of this goal in mind. And let us pray for the grace to understand just a fraction of God's Perfect Love for us and for the grace to express our love in return.
