SACRAMENTS

Baptism: The celebration of Baptism is a moment of Grace for those to be baptized, for their families, and for the entire Parish Community. Preparation class is held the last Wednesday of each month at 7pm. Please call the office to RSVP. A Parish is a certain community of the Christian faithful stably constituted in a particular church, whose pastoral care is entrusted to a pastor (Code of Canon Law #515). Therefore, it is important for parishioners to register for contact and pastoral reasons. You must have a sponsor letter from the parish in which each of the godparents reside. A godparent must have received the sacraments of Baptism, Penance, Holy Communion and, if married, have been married in the Catholic Church.

Marriage: Couples planning to be married must see a priest at least six months prior to the planned marriage. Couples seeking to be married at All Saints need to fulfill the All Saints pre-marriage process. The Wedding Coordinator and/or the Pastor will provide the couple with the guidelines and secure the date and time of the wedding. Do not set a date in advance until you have spoken to the pastor.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the Parish Office if you or a member of your family need the Sacrament of Anointing.

After Hours Sick Calls: In case of serious illness after hours, please call 803-493-1714 and leave a message.

MISSION STATEMENT

A CALL to CARMEL

If you are seeking a deeper prayer and community life, the Lord may be calling you to a closer walk with Him. You may have recently joined All Saints parish and the Tertiary Order of Carmel may be able to help you in your journey. This may be the opportunity you have been waiting for. To find out more about the Lay Carmelites, please call Loretta Luongo (201-519-3297).

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — They shall eat and there shall be some left over. (2 Kings 4:42-44)

Psalm - "The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.." (Psalm 145)

Second Reading — One body, one Lord, one faith, one baptism. (Ephesians 4: 1-6)

Gospel - He distributed as much as they wanted to those who were reclining. (John 6:1-15)

In the first reading, Elisha takes an offering of barley loaves and shares it with many more people than it would be expected to feed. All ate plenty and some was even left over. In the Gospel, Jesus takes five barley loaves and two fish and is able to share them with over five thousand people. All ate their fill, and twelve baskets were filled with the leftovers. God is able to provide more than we need, despite all appearances to the contrary. As we sing in the psalm today, "The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs."

Small Christian Communities

In October we will form small Christian Communities consisting of couples and individuals of no more than twelve per group that meet in homes twice a month.

They are not formal bible or scripture studies but informal discussions that will facilitate people getting to know one another better. The groups have a social time and then a discussion.

If you would like to host meetings or be a discussion leader let me know. Please call the office and leave your name and contact information.

Father John

Do you know someone who may be suffering silently?

Maybe your neighbor just lost their job or home. Your best friend just found out that they have been diagnosed with a serious illness. If you know someone who would benefit from the gift of a prayer shawl or lap robe, please visit St. Thomas More room (located on the right just before you enter the Parish Life Center). There are a number of shawls and lap robes that are free to any parishioner who may want to give one to a special person.

The Prayer Shawl Ministry's mission is to provide hope, comfort, and healing to those who most need a reminder of God's love for them through the work of our hands and the prayers in our hearts.

You CAN Do this

Half of you has gone on without you. After the funeral you go back to an empty home; yet, the world continues as if nothing happened.

NOW WHAT?

You hear a song. You see something to share when you realize you have momentarily forgotten your pain.

Your first of many holidays and events will make you feel alone or like a fifth wheel.

Sometimes you may feel like a smile on your face is a betrayal.

You hesitate to ask or reach out for help because you don't want to bother anyone.

You just need someone who understands your pain and can assure you that you are not losing it. You just need someone to talk to without the infamous..."time heals all wounds." Please come join us in the lending library at 10:30 am, the first Friday of the month, for conversation and discussion only a surviving spouse can relate to. For information call Linda Compton, (803) 322-1457 or Carol Lintner, (215) 850-8385.

Stewardship Bulletin Reflection

July 25, 2021 — Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our readings today remind us that we are called to give God everything we have. We are inspired by the little boy, who didn't have much but gave the very best of what he had and all that they had for God. In turn, He multiplied his gifts above and beyond what he could have imagined. God will do the same for us today. We must allow Him to do so.

In our Gospel Jesus asked the apostles how they were going to feed the crowd that had been following them. Philip replied that not even 200 days' worth of wages would be enough for the number of people. All they had were five barley loaves and two fish from a little boy. Yet Jesus multiplied the food so that there were baskets left over. All ate and were satisfied.

The little boy is an excellent example for us as Christian stewards. The boy gave all that he had, then God did the rest.

We must ask ourselves, what is our very best, and are we giving it to God? It can be easy to give God the bare minimum. It is convenient and doesn't cause us to stretch ourselves. Yet, a key component of living as a good steward is constantly re-evaluating our lives, particularly our relationship with God, to ensure we are not just 'scraping by,' but rather, giving God our entire lives.

As we evaluate our lives, we should ask ourselves — "how am I giving God my time, using my talents, and sharing my treasures?"

We are called to give God adequate time each day and if we don't plan it out then it is likely that He won't get any. Maybe it is the first fifteen minutes of each morning or the first fifteen when we get home from work. It could be the moment all the kids are napping or a quiet fifteen minutes on our lunch break. We need to find what works best for us so that God can become a greater part of our daily lives.

An additional way we are called to spend our time is with our loved ones. We are called to give undivided time to our families—whether it is having a family meal, quality time in the evening, a family game in the back yard, praying together, or a phone call to check in on our siblings or relatives—giving our families time is a key component of living as a Christian steward.

We are also called to put our gifts and talents to good use too. We all have countless talents that we are asked to use each day, yet sometimes we miss the opportunity to use them well. Yet the servant and the boy teach us that it is not up to us to decide how our gift will affect others. God will do that. All we need to do is to give it well. So whether we are called to go to work to provide for our family, phone a friend to just listen, or cook three meals a day for our spouse and kids, we are called to do it for the glory of God and with our whole heart.

Lastly, it is easy to give something; it is difficult to give the finest gift. Giving our very best requires us to evaluate our priorities in life. We must ask ourselves—do my spending habits reflect that God is the top priority in my life? Do I view all of my possessions as gifts from God that can be used for His glory?

Giving God our finest gift can be a challenge. I am sure the little boy was thinking to himself, 'I just gave up my dinner!' Yet it is always worth it. When we strive to live out our call as Christian stewards by entrusting all that we have been given to the One who graciously gave us these gifts, we will be blessed beyond measure.

As we begin a new week, let us spend some time evaluating our relationship with God by asking, 'what is my very best, and am I giving it to God?'
