

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus then said to the Twelve, "Do you also want to leave?"

Simon Peter answered him, "Master, to whom shall we go?

You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God."

John 6:67-69

SACRAMENTS

Baptism: The celebration of Baptism is a moment of Grace for those to be baptized, for their families, and for the entire Parish Community. Preparation class is held the last Wednesday of each month at 7pm. Please call the office to RSVP. A Parish is a certain community of the Christian faithful stably constituted in a particular church, whose pastoral care is entrusted to a pastor (Code of Canon Law #515). Therefore, it is important for parishioners to register for contact and pastoral reasons. You must have a sponsor letter from the parish in which each of the godparents reside. A godparent must have received the sacraments of Baptism, Penance, Holy Communion and, if married, have been married in the Catholic Church.

Marriage: Couples planning to be married must see a priest at least six months prior to the planned marriage. Couples seeking to be married at All Saints need to fulfill the All Saints pre-marriage process. The Wedding Coordinator and/or the Pastor will provide the couple with the guidelines and secure the date and time of the wedding. Do not set a date in advance until you have spoken to the pastor.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the Parish Office if you or a member of your family need the Sacrament of Anointing.

After Hours Sick Calls: In case of serious illness after hours, please call 803-493-1714 and leave a message.

MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Catholic Community dedicated to proclaiming Christ's message of love and salvation through worship, sacraments and ministries.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading - We will serve the LORD, for he is our God. (Joshua 24:1-2a, 15-17, 18b)

Psalm - "Taste and see the goodness of the Lord." (Psalm 34)

Second Reading - This is a great mystery, regarding Christ and the church.

(Ephesians 5:21-32)

Gospel - To whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life.. (John 6:60-69)

Today's readings emphasize the need to make a commitment. The tribes of Israel are asked to commit themselves to the God that they choose to serve. Paul speaks about spouses' commitments to their partners as a parallel to the relationship between Christ and the Church. Jesus asks the Twelve if they will commit to continue to follow him. As we listen to God's word, let us consider how we would answer each challenge and pray that our commitment to our faith be strengthened.

Make new friends or catch up with old ones!

Why not come to 9:30 am Mass on Wednesdays and at 10:00 am stay for coffee and great snacks afterwards? Every Wednesday in St Peter's room (by the gathering space) the Legion of Mary hosts an informal 'Meet and Greet.' It is a great time to be able to sit and chat with an old friend, make new friends (someone who may not go to 'your' weekend Mass), or talk to our clergy. Many thanks to all who help by bringing something to share and to those who share their time and conversation. See you there!

Small Christian Communities

In October we will form small Christian Communities consisting of couples and individuals of no more than twelve per group that meet in homes twice a month.

They are not formal bible or scripture studies but informal discussions that will facilitate people getting to know one another better. The groups have a social time and then a discussion.

If you would like to host meetings or be a discussion leader let me know or call the office and leave your name and contact information. Next weekend we will insert a sign up sheet in the bulletin for those who would like to participate.

the WAY, the TRUTH, and the LIFE

The Adult Faith Study will begin a 10-week DVD program offering a new and fresh look at Jesus, who he is, what he is really like, what he taught, and what he did for our salvation. Filmed on location in the Holy Land, the program features three well-known presenters, Marcellino D'Ambrosio, Jeff Cavins, and Edward Sri.

This film walks you through The Holy Land to the places where Jesus lived and performed his ministry and miracles. A must see if you plan a trip to Israel.

Join us for any or all sessions, in the McGivney room, 9:30-10:30 Sunday mornings beginning August 29th.

Stewardship Bulletin Reflection

August 22, 2021 — Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our readings offer us examples of how we should be living, and they present us with an opportunity to make a radical change in our lives.

In our first reading, Joshua tells the leaders of the Israelites to decide as to who they shall serve in this life. As he presents them with this choice, he boldly states, "As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord." Who or what does your household serve? Whether you are a household of one or twelve, now is the time to decide, 'will we serve the Lord?'

We are constantly bombarded with endless distractions around us. It can be very easy to serve other 'gods' in our lives. For instance, putting technology (phone, internet, TV), kids' extracurricular activities, our jobs, or our social lives before the Lord. We also might be putting these things above our loved ones, and if we are doing that, then we are putting them above our relationship with God.

With this in mind, we must strive each day to intentionally live as disciples of Christ. It starts with commitment — incorporating personal daily prayer and increasing that prayer week by week, incorporating prayer into our marriages and families, frequenting the sacraments, and serving others. Through this time with the Lord and service to those around us, He will reveal to us where to go next.

Reflect on how you may not be putting God first in your life and decide to respond like the Israelites, "Far be it from us to forsake the Lord for the service of other gods... Therefore we also will serve the Lord, for he is our God."
