SACRAMENTS

Baptism: The celebration of Baptism is a moment of Grace for those to be baptized, for their families, and for the entire Parish Community. Preparation class is held the last Wednesday of each month at 7pm. Please call the office to RSVP. A Parish is a certain community of the Christian faithful stably constituted in a particular church, whose pastoral care is entrusted to a pastor (Code of Canon Law #515). Therefore, it is important for parishioners to register for contact and pastoral reasons. You must have a sponsor letter from the parish in which each of the godparents reside. A godparent must have received the sacraments of Baptism, Penance, Holy Communion and, if married, have been married in the Catholic Church.

Marriage: Couples planning to be married must see a priest at least six months prior to the planned marriage. Couples seeking to be married at All Saints need to fulfill the All Saints pre-marriage process. The Wedding Coordinator and/or the Pastor will provide the couple with the guidelines and secure the date and time of the wedding. Do not set a date in advance until you have spoken to the pastor.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the Parish Office if you or a member of your family need the Sacrament of Anointing.

After Hours Sick Calls: In case of serious illness after hours, please call 803-493-1714 and leave a message.

MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Catholic Community dedicated to proclaiming Christ's message of love and salvation through worship, sacraments and ministries.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading - Here I am, send me!

(Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8)

Psalm 138- "In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord."

Second Reading - I handed on to you what I received. (1 Corinthians 15:1-11)

Gospel - They left everything, even their nets, and followed Jesus. (Luke 5:1-11)

God calls each of us to greatness. We may not feel worthy of such a calling, but this is natural. We hear in today's readings that Isaiah, Paul, and Simon Peter—giants of our faith—felt unworthy when they were called by the Lord. Jesus calls each of us to discipleship as well. Let us reflect on how we are called to be a disciple and pray for the courage and confidence to follow him.

The Retrouvaille Program is for married couples facing difficult challenges in their relationship and to help restore their marriage and rebuild loving connection. It is a Christian marriage program, Catholic in origin, where couples of all faiths, or no faith, attend. This is a peer-based ministry, and presenters are not trained marriage counselors. The presenters have all been there, done that, and more. They will offer practical tools that they used to rediscover love. For confidential information or to apply to attend the program beginning April 8-10, 2022 in Raleigh, N.C., get in touch: (434) 793-0242, retrouvaillenc@msn.com, or helpourmarriage.org.

PINE STRAW SALE

David Adams and his Boy Scout troop will be taking orders for pine straw this Sunday after Mass. Delivery is available for a fee.

Stewardship Reflection

February 6, 2022 — Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our readings today remind us of the great privilege we have in calling ourselves children and disciples of the Most High God.

The First Reading from Isaiah describes a vision of the prophet in which angels surround the Lord. They proclaim, "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts! All the earth is filled with his glory!" Our God invites us to such deep intimacy and friendship with Him that we sometimes can forget just how majestic and unspeakably holy He truly is.

While we can approach Him with the confidence of a child before his father, we must also remember the deep reverence and awe that we owe to Him.

This sense of awe and reverence should motivate us to deepen our stewardship way of life as well. As we contemplate the holiness of God, we come to a heightened awareness of what a privilege it is that He has chosen to include us in His work of spreading the Gospel to others through the grateful sharing of the gifts He has given us. We can make the words of the prophet Isaiah our own: "Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send?' Who will go for us? Here I am, I said, send me!"

The theme of awe before God continues in the Gospel passage from Luke, where we again see the juxtaposition of a God who is so near to us, yet who is altogether holy and powerful. In this passage we find Jesus preaching to a crowd who is pressing in on Him to listen. (What an inspiring image! Do we "press in" as we listen to the readings proclaimed in Mass with this same sense of wonder and urgency?) In response, Jesus uses very ordinary means so that the crowd can hear Him. He simply gets into one of the nearby boats belonging to Simon so that His voice will better carry over the water. He finishes speaking and then tells Simon the fisherman to lower his nets for a catch. Simon is skeptical about this instruction but obeys, putting his fishing talents to use as Jesus asks.

The result is a catch of fish beyond Simon's wildest imaginings. Overwhelmed, he fell at Jesus' knees, "for astonishment at the catch of fish they had made seized him and all those with him."

When we truly embrace a stewardship way of life, putting our talents, time and treasure at the service of the Most High God, we, too, will be astonished at what God will do. Our lives may take a direction beyond our wildest imaginings.

But just as Jesus reassured Simon, "Be not afraid," He reassures us, too. We need not fear a stewardship way of life. Rather, we should embrace the adventure it presents us and prepare to be astonished by what our awesome God will do. "Here I am Lord, send me!"

We still have time...the deadline for the response to the Synod on Synodality (or journeying together) has been extended to April 1, 2022. The Synod is about discerning together where God's Spirit is leading us and listening deeply to each other so that we can discover how God's people can best serve and love each other.
