SACRAMENTS

Baptism: The celebration of Baptism is a moment of Grace for those to be baptized, for their families, and for the entire Parish Community. Preparation class is held the last Wednesday of each month at 7pm.

Please call the office to RSVP. A Parish is a certain community of the Christian faithful stably constituted in a particular church, whose pastoral care is entrusted to a pastor (Code of Canon Law #515). Therefore, it is important for parishioners to register for contact and pastoral reasons. You must have a sponsor letter from the parish in which each of the godparents reside. A godparent must have received the sacraments of Baptism, Penance, Holy Communion and, if married, have been married in the Catholic Church.

Marriage: Couples planning to be married must see a priest at least six months prior to the planned marriage. Couples seeking to be married at All Saints need to fulfill the All Saints pre-marriage process. The Wedding Coordinator and/or the Pastor will provide the couple with the guidelines and secure the date and time of the wedding. Do not set a date in advance until you have spoken to the pastor.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the Parish Office if you or a member of your family need the Sacrament of Anointing.

After Hours Sick Calls: In case of serious illness after hours, please call 803-493-1714 and leave a message.

MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Catholic Community dedicated to proclaiming Christ's message of love and salvation through worship, sacraments and ministries.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading - Sarah and Abraham receive God as a guest. (Genesis 18:1-10a)

Psalm 15 - "He who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord."

Second Reading - The body of Christ suffers and rejoices in our sufferings and joys.

(Colossians 1:24-28)

Gospel - Martha and Mary received Jesus as a guest. (Luke 10:38-42)

Today we hear our forebears in faith invite others to share a meal and fellowship with them. Abraham and Sarah welcome three strangers and insist they rest and eat. Martha and Mary welcome Jesus into their home, where Martha takes care of all the serving while Mary visits with him. Here today we too are invited to listen to God's word and share a meal. Let us give thanks to God for this wonderful hospitality.

CALLING ALL PYXES!!

We are missing 12 pyxes, and need all those who have one to please return it to the sacristy. If you use one of All Saints' pyx regularly, please call the office to let us know the engraved number on the bottom of the pyx.

Remember the pyx is a sacred vessel and must be handled with great respect and care. Thank you for your cooperation in locating the missing pyxes.

FLOWER SIGN-UP

A sign-up sheet to provide flowers for the altar for next year will be in the gathering space after all Masses this weekend. You may also call Linda Schifferle at 704-678-5385.

Stewardship Reflection

Today's readings are chock full of inspiration for living a stewardship way of life, starting with our first reading, from Genesis. Here we see the stewardship concept of hospitality at work as Abraham offers a generous welcome to three mysterious men who appear at the entrance to his tent. Some Church fathers hold that the three men are an early symbol of our Triune God; others that the three are angels. In any case, Abraham welcomes them warmly in true stewardship hospitality, offering them a good meal and some cool water with which to refresh themselves. In return for his generosity, one of the three men promises that Abraham's elderly wife would miraculously give birth to a son, a promise which indeed comes true.

In our Second Reading, from St. Paul's letter to the Colossians, Paul uses the term "stewardship" to describe the particular mission that has been entrusted to Him by God. That is why, he explains, that all the sufferings he endures as part of his ministry are a joy for Him — because they come as a part of the privilege of serving the Lord. This is equally true for each one of us today. We are all called to be the Lord's faithful stewards, spreading the Good News of the Gospel in our sphere of influence. And while serving the Lord (through formal ministry or just in the daily duties of everyday life) involves some suffering, like Paul, we should count this as part of the privilege of being called His stewards.

Finally, in today's Gospel reading, from St. Luke, we receive a reminder about the proper use of the gift of time, a fundamental aspect of a stewardship way of life. Our passage highlights one of the most famous dinner parties ever thrown, recalling the day that Martha and Mary hosted our Lord in their home. We are told that Martha, as a good steward, welcomes Christ in but then becomes "burdened with much serving" while her sister and fellow hostess choose to simply sit with Jesus, listening to Him speak.

Martha becomes indignant at Mary's behavior and complains to Jesus, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me." But Jesus, in His infinite wisdom, refuses to get pulled into this sisterly spat. Instead, He offers Martha a fresh way to look at the situation. "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing." What is that one thing? It is to put Jesus first in our lives and above all other things; to "sit at his feet" and listen as Mary did, giving Him the priority of our time no matter how busy we think we are.

When we truly commit to putting Christ first in our daily lives through a regular time of prayer and frequent participation in the sacraments, we will find that all our other concerns become less pressing and less overwhelming. Why is this so? Because the time we invest in our relationship with God saturates all aspects of our lives with His grace. And because God cannot be outdone in generosity. He will abundantly reward any sacrifice we make to spend time with Him.

BLESSINGS OF FINANCIAL STEWARDSHIP

The collection for July 10th will appear in next week's bulletin.

The tithe for the weekend of July 10th is for Restore Mobility.

To all of the wonderful people who donated bags, socks, toiletries, and to Dr. Tom Stall for the toothbrushes, toothpaste, and bags. We were able to bring the donations to the Pilgrims Inn, CAAC, Catholic Charities, Tender Hearts, Safe Passage, Life House and Her Place. Know that these items will be a blessing for the people who need them. We will pray that God continues to bless you and your families. ASWO thanks you for your very kind donations!

All Saints Women's Organization (ASWO) would like to thank our parishioners for their support in our latest fundraiser. We congratulate the winners of the Chili contest, 50/50 raffle, and cornhole tournament. With your help we were able to support the following organizations:

St. Clare's home – stclareshomesc.org

Her Place – herplacesc.org
