SACRAMENTS

Baptism: The celebration of Baptism is a moment of Grace for those to be baptized, for their families, and for the entire Parish Community. Preparation class is held the last Wednesday of each month at 7pm. Please call the office to RSVP. A Parish is a certain community of the Christian faithful stably constituted in a particular church, whose pastoral care is entrusted to a pastor (Code of Canon Law #515). Therefore, it is important for parishioners to register for contact and pastoral reasons. You must have a sponsor letter from the parish in which each of the godparents reside. A godparent must have received the sacraments of Baptism, Penance, Holy Communion and, if married, have been married in the Catholic Church.

Marriage: Couples planning to be married must see a priest at least six months prior to the planned marriage. Couples seeking to be married at All Saints need to fulfill the All Saints pre-marriage process. The Wedding Coordinator and/or the Pastor will provide the couple with the guidelines and secure the date and time of the wedding. Do not set a date in advance until you have spoken to the pastor.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the Parish Office if you or a member of your family need the Sacrament of Anointing.

After Hours Sick Calls: In case of serious illness after hours, please call 803-493-1714 and leave a message.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading - "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light."

(Isaiah 8:23-9:3)

Psalms 27 - "The Lord is my light and my salvation."

Second Reading - Let there be no divisions among you. (1 Corinthians 1:10-13, 17)

Gospel - Andrew and Peter abandon their nets to follow the Lord. (Matthew 4:12-23)

On this Sunday of the Word of God we hear a dramatic example of how words written in one era come alive centuries later in a new context. Isaiah saw that Judah's king had turned his back on his own people, but also saw a day when God's ultimate triumph would be realized. Eight hundred years later, Matthew noted that Jesus came from the same region Isaiah mentioned, giving new meaning to the "great light" who overcame the darkness. Listening to God's holy word, let us reflect on how the light of Christ continues to overcome the darkness.

JOIN OUR CHOIR

We need additional voices for the Saturday 4 PM Choir, especially male voices. If you work and can't come to the 3:30 pm practice on Wednesday, we now have practice at 7 pm on most Wednesdays just for you.

If you start now you can be ready to sing the beautiful Easter music. Call Kaye Lewis, 803-831-1983 to sign up.

Father John will hear confessions on Thursday mornings after Mass with the exception of each first Thursday of the month.

Parish Safety Team Notes

PARKING SHORTAGE

As our parish continues to grow, you have probably noticed that we are experiencing a shortage of parking spaces . . . especially for the 11 AM Mass. There are about 40 overflow parking spaces in the wooded/unpaved area west of the church and bordering Highway 274. HOWEVER, very often people are blocking the entrance and exit from that area . . . and later arrivals to the church cannot get in or out. Please DO NOT park your vehicle either in the overflow area entrance (which is near the HWY 274 entry to the church) or the area exit which is clearly marked with white hash marks in our lot.

In the coming weeks, we will be posting No Parking signs. Meanwhile, we need everyone's cooperation in not blocking this area or parking in any areas that are marked with white or blue (for handicapped only) striping. Thank You for your cooperation! May God Bless!

ANGEL TREE

All Saints Catholic Church, The Palmetto Women's Center would like to take the time to thank you for all of the recent donations. Each item donated will be used to bless a mom who chose life for her baby. Your support for our ministry is so encouraging to our staff.

Thank you.

Blessings,

Palmetto Women's Center Staff

Stewardship Reflection

January 22, 2023 — Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's readings remind us that stewardship is not just a thing we do — rather, stewardship is at the core of who we are as disciples of Christ.

Our first reading, from Isaiah, contains this prophecy of Christ and what His saving message would mean to all who embrace it. "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom a light has shone." We are among those blessed people on whom the light of Christ has shone. By virtue of our Baptism, we, who were once in the darkness and gloom of original sin, have been born again into the great light that is God's grace in us. We have become cherished members of God's family.

What a privilege!

Yet, with this privilege comes the responsibility to actually live for God and to bring His Good News to all those we meet at work, at school, in our community and right in our own home.

In our second reading, from the First Letter to the Corinthians, St. Paul urges us to keep the responsibility of sharing the Gospel our foremost priority. In this passage he addresses the divisions and rivalries that have cropped up in the Christian community in Corinth. He urges the Christians there to "be united in the same mind and the same purpose," reminding them that it was Christ and only Christ who was crucified for us. We owe everything to Him. Our lives are therefore not about us, our egos, our personal ambitions and loyalties. Those things cannot satisfy us, anyway. Our loyalty must be to Christ above all else and our priority must be to bring His light to everyone He puts in our path.

And there is a certain urgency that comes with the call to a stewardship way of life. We see this in our Gospel passage from Matthew, where we find Jesus on the move. He has left Nazareth and goes to live in Capernaum, fulfilling what was said of Him through the prophet Isaiah, as we recall from today's first reading. "The people who sit in darkness have seen a great light, on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death, light has arisen. From that time on, Jesus began to preach and say, 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.'" In other words, turn away from selfishness, turn towards God and live as His disciple now — don't wait!

Later in this same passage, the very first disciples give us examples of a good steward's prompt "yes" when the Lord called to them. Our Lord sees Simon and his brother, Andrew, living an ordinary day as fishermen when He said to them, "Come after me and I will make you fishers of men." The two did not hesitate. They didn't think about themselves or how this might disrupt their business. Rather, "at once they left their nets and followed him." Then, Jesus called two more brothers, James and John. They, too, were living an ordinary day as fishermen, working alongside their father mending nets in their boat. Jesus called them and "immediately they left their boat and their father and followed him." They did not worry about their personal lives and how their father might react. They put our Lord and His will first and responded without hesitation.

This is the essence of a stewardship way of life — to be always ready for the ways that our Lord is calling us to bring His light to others. It's more than something we do — it's who we are.
